

THE MYSTERIOUS PORTAL

Edition 2

One normal day...

What's going on there?
Nothing good, I'm sure.

WHAM!

How about kingpin, are you having fun stealing what's not yours?

It is a public bank, therefore the money belongs to everyone.

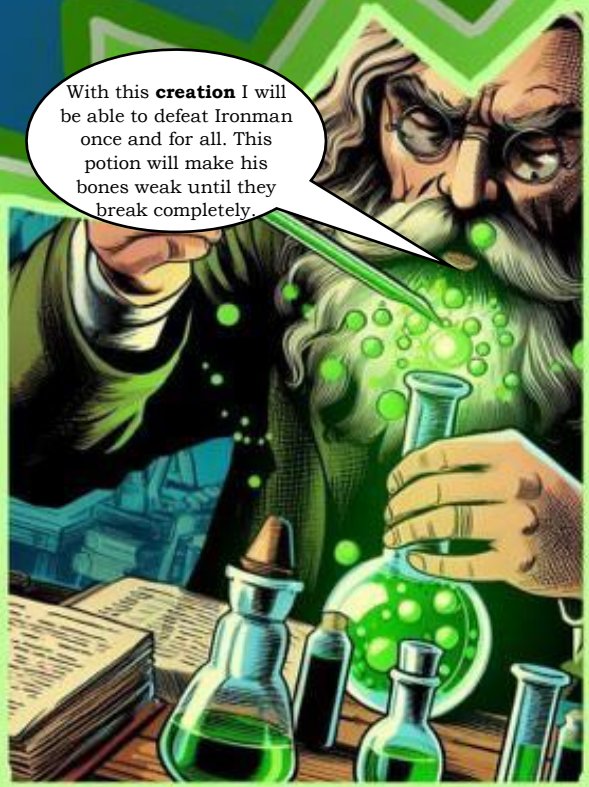

POW!

SO LET'S SEE IF YOU'LL STEAL THIS PUNCH TOO, MINDLESS.

IN THE MEANTIME...

It can't be possible that they letting out the Joker of the asylum, he must have escaped. I'm going to get him.

YOU'LL PAY FOR THIS BATMAN, I'LL COME AFTER YOU

Thank you Batman, you have a goog-hearted, you are the best.

How tiring it is to be a superhero, I should search for another job.

AAAAA

What happens now, a three-dimensional portal? In my room? Really?

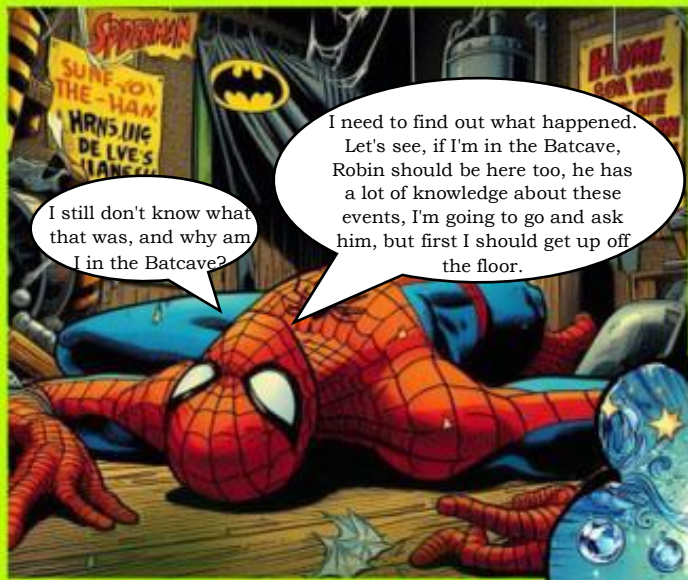

I thought the three-dimensional portals were fictitious. I'm not going to be able to take a nap today.

What's that loud noise

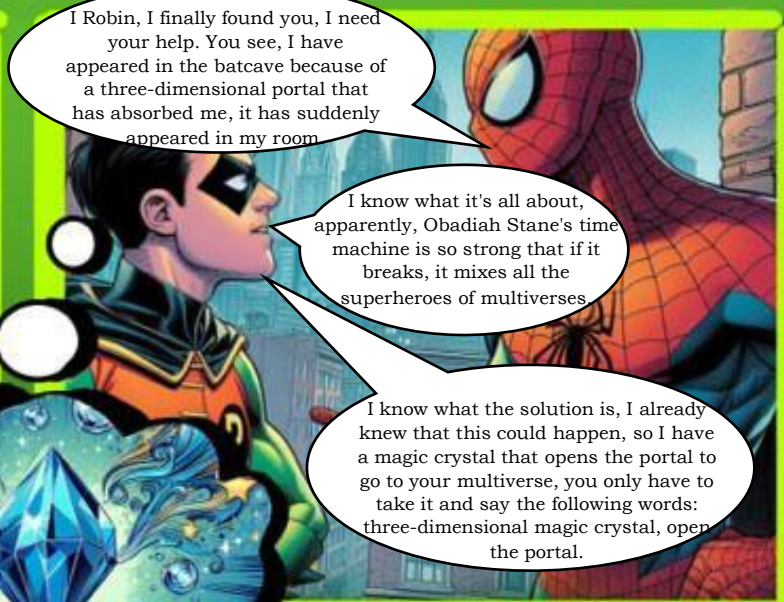

NOO!

I still don't know what that was, and why am I in the Batcave?

I need to find out what happened. Let's see, if I'm in the Batcave, Robin should be here too, he has a lot of knowledge about these events, I'm going to go and ask him, but first I should get up off the floor.

I Robin, I finally found you, I need your help. You see, I have appeared in the batcave because of a three-dimensional portal that has absorbed me, it has suddenly appeared in my room

I know what it's all about, apparently, Obadiah Stane's time machine is so strong that if it breaks, it mixes all the superheroes of multiverses.

I know what the solution is, I already knew that this could happen, so I have a magic crystal that opens the portal to go to your multiverse, you only have to take it and say the following words: three-dimensional magic crystal, open the portal.

Why am I in Spiderman's house? Well, there's no time for questions, if I remember correctly, near this address there is a library, I'll go and investigate.

According to the book, the portal has been created because of Obadiah Stane's time machine, when it breaks it causes superheroes to switch multiverse.

To reopen the portal, I need a three-dimensional magic crystal, and while holding it I must say specific words.

Okey, I know where I can find one of these crystals, in fact Robin told me once.

THREE-DIMENSIONAL MAGIC CRYSTAL, OPEN THE PORTAL.

The three-dimensional portal opens and the two cross the portal to return to their multiverse.

Spiderman?

Batman?

BOOM!!

It's been a pretty weird day, and actually being a superhero isn't so bad.

Robin, if I tell you what happened to me today you won't believe it.

Believe me, I know exactly what has happened to you.

I can't fix my time machine, BECAUSE EVERYTHING BAD HAPPENS TO ME.

THE END
